

Pipeline Emergency Response Forum

December 9, 2011

8:00 AM - 5:15 PM

U.S. DOT West Bldg Atrium
1200 New Jersey Ave. SE
Washington, DC

Register Here... To Attend
In-Person or via Webcast

Preliminary Agenda

Welcome & Opening Remarks

- 8:00 • Cynthia Quarterman, PHMSA Administrator
- Ray LaHood, U.S. Transportation Secretary
- USFA
- NAPSR
- Tim Butters, PHMSA Deputy Administrator

8:30 Regulator Perspective

9:15 Pipeline Operator Perspective

10:15 Emergency Responder Perspective

Lunch

Breakout Sessions

Pipeline Emergency:

- 12:30 • Communications
- Training
- Awareness

4:00 Reports from Breakout Sessions

4:45 Wrap-up and Next Steps

Purpose

To convene a meeting of leaders in the emergency response community, the government, the pipeline industry, and the interested public to solicit professional advice that will inform the development of a strategy for improving emergency responders' ability to prepare for and respond to pipeline emergencies.

Sponsors

- Pipeline and Hazardous Materials Safety Administration (PHMSA)
- National Association of Pipeline Safety Representatives (NAPSR)
- United States Fire Administration (USFA)

Further Information

Contact Sam Hall at (804) 556-4678 or by e-mail at sam.hall@dot.gov.

Supplementary Information

- Hotels
- Submitting written comments
- Services for individuals with disabilities

Located at

<http://primis.phmsa.dot.gov/meetings/MtgHome.mtg?mtg=74>